

Tony Tirado “Mi Gente” Scholarship

To whom it may concern:

If you are reading this letter, it means that you may be looking for an opportunity to encourage growth in the Latino community and ensure that high-caliber education continues to be available to disadvantaged youth in the NYC area. In addition, wouldn't you love an opportunity to say “Thank you and job well done!” to those who are on the “front lines” of procuring education for so many families in need?

I'm thrilled to introduce the Tony Tirado “Mi Gente” Scholarship, established to help Puerto Rican college students in New York. Developed in partnership with the City College Center for Worker Education (CWE) and member agencies, this Fund assists hardworking students in need.

Each semester, a $500 scholarship will be awarded to a deserving student, providing donations to the Fund allows. I hope you will join us in this effort by making a tax-deductible contribution to the Tony Tirado “Mi Gente” Scholarship.

Enclosed is a contribution form to help you participate in this vital project. If you would like more information about the Fund, please feel free to call Davi Saroop at (212) 925-6625 ext. 238.

With sincere thanks,

Tony Tirado
